The News.

ST JOSEPH, Sept 10.—A despatch dated Quincy, Ill, Sept 5th, says: A man just arrived from Shelbina, Mo, reported there was a fight at that place on Saturday between Gen Hurlbut's forces and some 1,200 or 1,500 State troops under Green. Gen Hurlbut retreated westward. Green has two cannon planted at Salt river, commanding the bridge, and intends raking any train conveying soldiers that attempts to cross it. The track is torn up in several places.

CAIRO, Sept. 5.—As near as can be learned there are 22,000 rebel troops in Southeast Missouri. The troops at Sikestown are reported to have left that place. It is also reported that Pillow is leaving New Madrid with his entire force, and that the troops at Hickman, Ky, yesterday, were Tennessee rebels.

LOUISVILLE, Sept 4.—The city is full of untraceable rumors that the Federal gunboats which had been fired upon from Columbus, had responded by shelling and burning the town, but no verification of this improbable story can be obtained to night.

The N. O. Crescent says the Military Board of Mississippi was tendered the services of vessels fully armed and equipped for the defense of the Mississippi Sound, but declined.

Richmond despatches say President Davis has called Congress to convene for the second time.

Lieut. Burnett, late of the United States army, lately arrived at Fort Smith.

Gen. Grant telegraphed to the Kentucky Legislature that Confederate forces in considerable numbers, had invaded Kentucky, and are occupying and fortifying their positions at Hickman and Chalk Bluffs. This afternoon he received a reply to his message, with one from Gov. Harris of Tennessee to Gov Magoffin, that it had been referred to a special committee. Harris' message says the troops that landed at Hickman's last night, did so without his knowledge or consent, and is confident, without the consent of President Davis. He telegraphed him (Davis,) requesting their immediate withdrawal.

Beauregard's report of the battle of Bull Run is published. He calls the engagement a remarkable artillery duel, and compliments the Washington Artillery.

The Wilmington journals say Hatteras has fallen into the hands of the enemy, on account of the works not being sufficiently tenable to resist the heavy forces thrown against them.

WASHINGTON, Sept 5.—Gen. Burnside has been assigned to duty here, in command of the unbrigaded regiments. Col Marcy, Inspector, U. S. A. has been appointed Chief of McClellan's staff.

Three South Carolina regiments have been reduced to half their original size, by sickness, lying between Fairfax Courthouse and Falls Church.

BOSTON, Sept 5.—Boston banks have made another specie gain of $870,400 to day, which swells the total now held to over $12,500,000.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept 4.—A flag of truce from Norfolk came in this afternoon. They say the North Carolina Confederates are greatly exasperated in consequence of the late victory.

The floating battery, said to have been towed to Sewall's Point, exists only in imagination.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 5.—A report widely circulated that Major Barbee had received a dispatch affirming the death of President Davis, is without foundation.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.—The schooners Anna Amelia Gyle and Henry Cole were seized to day under the Confiscation Act, also, 63 boxes of tobacco, and nearly $9,000 worth of property belonging to P. M. Daily, a captain in the rebel army.

The schooner Abby Bradford, a prize of the Sumter, was recaptured by the Powhatan, and has arrived at the Navy Yard with one of the prisoners in irons.

Correspondence of the N. Y. Times, dated Washington, Sept 4, says the steamship R B Forbes, arrived at the Navy Yard this afternoon. Her captain, first and second mates, boatswain and carpenter, were immediately arrested, by order of the Navy Department, and placed in double irons. The charge against them has not transpired, but it is believed it has grown out of their reckless conduct since leaving Boston.

Considerable skirmishing has transpired this afternoon, at Bailey's Cross roads. An hour before daylight, the enemy in considerable force from Manassas Hill drove in our pickets from the Cross roads and took possession of the point. Four companies of the 31st, commanded by Capt Leonard, drove them back and held the position. Our forces sustained a loss of two killed and three wounded, and took five prisoners. The prisoners state that no intelligence of Davis' death had been received.

Professor Lowe made an ascension near Fort Corcoran, accompanied by Generals McDowell and Porter—ascended about 800 feet and had a fine view of the rebels' camp and vicinity.

FRANKFORT, Ky, September 5.—R. H. Buckner was elected Speaker of the House, W. F. Samuel's, Clerk, and John Smedly, Sergeant at Arms.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—At Tammany Hall, last night, there was a full delegation to the Syracuse Convention.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—A special despatch to the N. Y. Times says, it has been determined by the Government to hold the position of Cape Hatteras although the original intention was to destroy and abandon the works, but now it will be made a rendezvous for the army and naval forces. This expedition is but the commencement of operations for which the Naval Department has made ample preparations, and will be rapidly developed.

The N. Y. Herald's correspondent sends the following: A despatch reached here to-day from Richmond via Louisville announces the death of Jeff Davis. This accounts for the display of flags at half-mast from the rebel ramparts.

PHILADELPHIA, September 3.—The subscription to the national loan was opened yesterday, $135,000 was subscribed during the day.

A letter published in the Southern papers states that the privateer Jeff Davis was wrecked on the St Augustine Bar.

The most trustworthy accounts from Virginia place the number of troops from that State in the field at 55,000.

The enemy are concentrating in large numbers south of Alexandria, and are also erecting batteries near the mouth of Occoquan river. Heavy firing was heard in that direction this morning, and from the lines on the other side of the Potomac, but no reports of a battle have been received.

The capture of Fort Hatteras and its dependencies has spread alarm in the Carolinas. Regiments from South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, hurrying to the Potomac, were stopped on the way and sent to Newbern. The impression is that an immediate attack is contemplated at the headquarters of the rebel pirates.

The Commissioner of Subsistence has advertised for sealed proposals for 5,000 barrels of flour and 40,000 bushels of potatoes.

The Navy Department is more active than ever.

Flora Temple was seized yesterday at the race course by the United States Marshal as property of a Baltimore Secessionist. She had beaten Ethan Allen three heats.

The citizens of Charleston feel the blockade with great severity. The Southern people are bitterly lamenting their destitute condition.

A special despatch from Washington states that reliable information was received by the Government that Jeff. Davis is dead. The event took place on Tuesday, September 3d, at Monticello.

The Harriet Lane arrived at Fortress Monroe from Fort Hatteras Inlet, on the morning of the 5th, and reports the gratifying intelligence that the Confederates had abandoned their strongly fortified fort at Ocracoke Inlet. Multitudes of North Carolinians had demonstrated their loyalty by taking the oath of allegiance at Fort Hatteras. The oath was administered to as many as 200 or 300 in a single day. The fortifications at Ocracoke Inlet have been completely deserted by the Confederates, who carried away the guns while the white flag was exhibited.

The State Department has notified the War Department that it must refrain from granting passes to women and children who may desire to enter the Southern States.

Major B. B. French has been appointed Commissioner of Public Buildings, in place of Wood resigned.

$300,000 have already been subscribed to the popular loan.

It is supposed there are 75,000 rebel troops at Leesburg.

The travel by way of Louisville is completely blockaded by orders of the Government.

All the Secession emblems at Baltimore have been suppressed.

Advices from the Southern part of Maryland state that the Union men are organized strongly for the October election.

Advices from Virginia leave no doubt that the rebel leaders, both civil and military, are agreed about an advance upon Washington and Maryland, in a few days. The Government is fully prepared for any emergency.

The force opposite Washington is estimated by the rebels at 125,000 men, with heavy reinforcements arriving. They say the attack is to be made on Washington the present week. Simultaneously with the attack on Washington, demonstrations are to be made, according to authority, near the mouth of the Occoquan, and above, at Edward's, Noland's and White House Ferries. The rebels have plenty of provisions and whisky. Families and stores have been entirely drained of salt, sugar and coffee, no money can purchase these. Men beg in piteous terms of their Maryland friends for a pittance of those articles. The stock are suffering for the want of salt.

Ex-Governor Wright, late Minister to Berlin, made a strong Union speech at Indianapolis on the 6th inst. He advises war to the knife, and the knife to the hilt, until the last vestige of rebellion be crushed out.

Gen. Grant, with 2 regiments of infantry, 1 company of light artillery, and 2 gunboats, took possession of Paducah, Ky., on the 6th, and found secession flags flying in expectation of the arrival of a Southern army, which was reported, 3,800 strong, 19 miles distant. The loyal citizens tore down the secession flags on the arrival of our troops. Gen. Grant took possession of the telegraph office, depot and marine hospital, and found the rations of the Southern army. He issued a proclamation, saying:

I came among you, not as an enemy, but as a friend and fellow citizen, not to injure and annoy you, but to respect, defend and enforce the rights of loyal citizens. Columbia and Hickman are in the hands of the enemy, and they are moving upon your city. I am here to defend you against this enemy, and assert and maintain the authority and sovereignty of your Government. The army will remain until you can pursue your usual avocations without fear, and whenever this is manifest, I shall withdraw the forces under my command.

N. J. GRANT,
Brig. Gen. Commanding.

The Pension Bureau has already commenced pensioning soldiers wounded in the present war.

2,000 troops were to leave St. Louis on the 7th, for active service along the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad. None of the railroads out of this city are now in operation, but are waiting protection, which is daily looked for.

There is no telegraphic connection with the East.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The Courrier des Etats Unis has gone into new hands, and will hereafter drop advocating the Southern Rebellion.

The Arago arrived to-day from England.

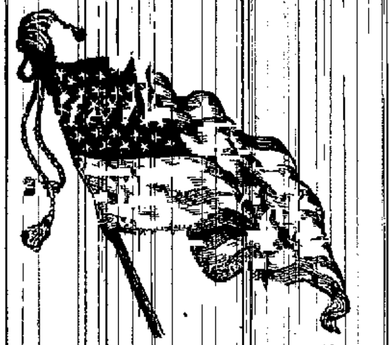
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT 23, 1861

The News.

Although we have St. Joseph dates to Sept. 10, our Washington dates are only to the 5th. A battle was expected at Washington within two days. The public can await the result with confidence. The capture of the forts at Hatteras Inlet, is producing the best effects. Great events are at hand.

The Crittenden Compromise.

We have heard much from the Secession papers on the subject of the Crittenden Compromise. We are told that had that Compromise been adopted, it would have saved the country from its present difficulties, but the papers have been careful not to tell us that the Southern members of the Senate, had they chosen to do so, could have carried the measure in that body. They did not desire to do this. They spurned at the proposition of compromise. Their determination was for rebellion and war.

Senator Latham, in a speech in the Senate on the 20th of July, gave a history of the proceedings in that body upon Mr. Crittenden's Compromise Resolutions. He states that when Southern members could have carried these resolutions, they refused to vote. It will be recollected that Mr. Clark, of New Hampshire, offered an amendment to Mr. Crittenden's resolutions for the purpose of embarrassing them. When this amendment was presented, there were fifty five Senators present, on a vote, taken by yeas and nays as follows.

Yeas—Anthony, Baker, Bingham, Cameron, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Dixon, Doolittle, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Grimes, Hale, Harlan, King, Seward, Simmons, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbull, Wade, Wilkinson and Wilson—25

Nays—Bayard, Benjamin, Bigler, Bragg, Bright, Clingman, Crittenden, Douglas, Fitch, Green, Gwin, Hemphill, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson of Arkansas, Johnson of Tennessee, Kennedy, Lane, Latham, Mason, Nicholson, Pearce, Polk, Powell, Pugh, Rice, Saulsbury, Sebastian, Slidell and Wigfall—30.

The vote being taken immediately after on the Clark proposition, was as follows

Yeas—Anthony, Baker, Bingham, Cameron, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Dixon, Doolittle, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Grimes, Hale, Harlan, King, Seward, Simmons, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbull, Wade, Wilkinson and Wilson—25

Nays—Bayard, Bigler, Bragg, Bright, Clingman, Crittenden, Fitch, Green, Gwin, Hunter, Johnson of Tennessee, Kennedy, Lane, Latham, Mason, Nicholson, Pearce, Polk, Powell, Pugh, Rice, Saulsbury and Sebastian—23.

Mr. Latham proceeds in his statement "Six Senators retained their seats and refused to vote, thus themselves allowing the Clark proposition to supplant the Crittenden resolution by the vote of 25 to 23. Mr Benjamin of Louisiana, Mr. Hemphill and Mr. Wigfall of Texas, Mr. Iverson of Georgia, Mr. Johnson Arkansas, and Mr Slidell of Louisiana, were in their seats, but refused to cast their votes. I recollect full well the joy that pervaded the faces of some of those gentlemen at the result, and the sorrow manifested by the venerable Senator from Kentucky (Mr Crittenden) The record shows that Mr. Pugh, from Ohio, despairing of any compromise between the extremes of ultra Republicanism and Disunionists, working manifestly for the same end, moved, immediately after the vote was announced, to lay the whole subject on the table. If you will turn to page 443, same volume, you will find when, at a late period, Mr Cameron, from Pennsylvania, moved to reconsider the vote, appeals having been made to sustain those who were struggling to preserve the peace of the country, that the vote was reconsidered; and when, at last, the Crittenden propositions were submitted on the 2d day of March, these Southern States, having nearly all seceded, they were then lost by one vote. Here is the vote:

Yeas—Bayard, Bigler, Bright, Crittenden, Douglas, Gwin, Hunter, Johnson of Tennessee, Kennedy, Latham, Mason, Nicholson, Polk, Pugh, Rice, Sebastian, Thompson and Wigfall—19.

Nays—Anthony, Bingham, Chandler, Clark, Dixon, Doolittle, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Foster, Grimes, Harlan, King, Morrill, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbull, Wade, Wilkinson and Wilson—20

If these seceding Southern Senators had remained, the Crittenden propositions would have passed, by a large vote, and an amendment by a two-thirds vote, forbidding Congress ever interfering with slavery in the States; and the subject finally going before the people, who have never yet after consideration, refused justice, for any length of time, to any portion of the country.

Thus it is demonstrated that Southern Senators could have carried both these measures, had they chosen to do so. It was against the policy and wishes of the South to adopt this compromise. They were opposed to it. Their adoption was spurned by Wigfall, Jeff Davis, and other rebellious Senators of the South.

The history of the action of the Senate upon Mr Crittenden's propositions, thus furnished by Senator Latham, explodes the miserable sophistry and humbuggery of the Portland Advertiser on this subject. Mr. Latham says that the conduct of the Southern Senators in this case, satisfied him that there was a deliberate and willful design on their part, to precipitate this revolution upon the country.

Rev J A Cornwall vs Rev. Niell Johnson and Rev. T. H. Small

These gentlemen belong to the Cumberland Presbyterian church. Rev J. A. Cornwall, is a pro slavery man and believes that "the South is engaged in a glorious struggle for liberty." The other two gentlemen are in favor of leaving slavery where it is and not extending it, and we suppose, of putting down the present slave rebellion by force of arms. Rev. J. A. Cornwall preferred charges against his last named brethren before the Presbytery of the church—presenting six specifications, viz among others, that they had prostituted their calling and converted the sacred desk into a political rostrum; that they had transformed the gospel of peace into a demon; that they had slandered the southern church, denouncing them as thieves and traitors, that they had violated their solemn vows, that Johnson had practiced a course of duplicity, that he had published articles in the Banner of Peace denying all connection with the slavery movement in Oregon, and had refused to fraternize with him as a minister of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

The matters thus charged were investigated at a meeting of the Presbytery at McMinville, on the 4th inst; and after a patient hearing of the Rev. J. A. Cornwall, the Presbytery decided unanimously that the prosecutor had failed to establish a single one of all his charges, and having thus failed, he was himself suspended from the ministry as a slanderer of the gospel ministry. So it appears, that Rev. J. A. Cornwall

"Digged a pit—he digged it deep,
He digged it for his brother,
But for his sin, he did fall in,
The pit he digg'd for t'other"

Testimony of the United Presbyterian Church.

The Presbytery of Oregon held a meeting at Kendall's Bridge, Linn County, on the 3d and 4th inst, and adopted a long and able report on the condition of the country. We copy two paragraphs from that Report

"We believe it to be the imperious obligation of that government to enforce the laws, to subdue insubordination, to bring to justice all traitors; and we cannot but admire and thank God for the wisdom, and prudence, and valor with which their efforts against the Southern aggression have been conducted."

"We recommend, in accordance with the proclamation of the President of these United States, the observance of the last Thursday of September, inst, as a day of fasting, to be observed by all the people under the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of this Presbytery. T. S. Kendall, clerk of Presbytery."

THE GOLD FIELDS EXTENDING.—We have the following from Capt. J. Keeney—a well known resident of Linn County. No man who knows him, will doubt the truth of his statements. He was one of the prospecting company—perhaps its Captain—who went out from Eugene City, last Spring.

"Beyond a doubt we did find a good prospect of gold on Burnt river, and a better on Powder river, and still better on the Grande Ronde river. The prospects of quartz leads on Burnt river were flattering. The gold on Powder river is round and rough, and is found on all the branches and gulches. From $3 to $10 can be made and no mistake, and room for any number of miners. On the Grande Ronde river, the gold we found was coarser, but generally flat—some pieces worth as much as twenty-three cents, and very light.

J KEENEY."

The Mountaineer says that several of the successful miners, are on the way from the mines to the States—to return in the spring—bringing back such friends as desire to try their luck in the mines.

A number of our acquaintances who have been in the mines, have returned here to spend the winter. They will go back in the spring. They believe in the mines.

Williams the store robber in Marion county, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for three years.

Mr. Parkinson, contractor for carrying the mail on Puget Sound, has purchased at San Francisco, the steamer Enterprise for that purpose.

Complaints against the War.

I will mention one more incident. A soldier in the rebel army was sorely wounded, losing one of his legs, and said to a Union soldier, who came to him "Have you anything against me?" "No," was the reply; "but I am sorry we are under the necessity of cutting each other to pieces so." The wounded soldier wept, and said he was obliged to enter the army, and would have been shot down in his own house, if he had not.

Fellow citizens, do you sympathise with the people of the South? So do I. They have a dark day, a troublesome time of it, there. But on which of the parties do you bestow your sympathies? There are two parties at the South. There is a party of good loyal citizens at the South who are friendly to good order, and to our government. These have been surprised and awed into subjection by an organized and armed band of rebels. They have been watched by spies day and night, at home and abroad, and are consequently in jeopardy of their lives. So determined are their enemies and so little proof do they require of one's loyalty, in order to put one to death, that they sometimes hang some of their own class. A reign of terror is there, and no man's property or life is safe.

Do you love the people of the South? Do not bestow your sympathies on the destroyers of their peace, safety, prosperity and happiness. Those rebels who are sapping the very foundations of good order, are not worthy of your sympathy. If you have tears to shed, weep over those who are knocked down in their shops, and threatened to be shot down in their houses, and dragged away into the rebel army where they may die ingloriously, or if they lose a hand or a foot, they must ever after, be ashamed to tell where it happened. Weep for those who have written to their friends in the North, enquiring for business that would support them; their letters being intercepted, they have been thrown into prison for so doing. Yes, weep for those families, who wish to flee from the land of terror, and enjoy the freedom and protection of the North; but are not allowed to do it. If you have any praise or encouragement to give, bestow it upon the States, North and South, who are so freely turning out men and money to put down this destructive rebellion. Bestow it upon the Government, who are laboriously superintending the war. And upon the brave soldiers who are facing the cannon's mouth and making inroads among the enemy, and restoring the good citizens of the South to liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

But to those Editors, and others who are well informed, and still misrepresent facts in order to influence the ignorant to take a stand against the government, I have nothing to say; only I will bring to their recollection a few sentences of the higher law—"Let every soul be subject to the higher powers; for there is no power but of God. The powers that be, are ordained of God—Whosoever resisteth the power resisteth the ordinance of God: And they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation." R.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian Church tender their kind thanks to their numerous friends for their generous assistance on the evening of their Festival. Especially to Mr. A. [illegible] Dennison for the use of the Hall, also to Mr. [illegible] Randall for the use of his fine Piano. Nett receipts, $520. By order of the Society,

CITY.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The Council met Sept. 21, 1861. Present, Messrs. Harbaugh, Hall, King, Masters and White. Councilman White was elected President pro tem. The opinion of the city attorney relative to taxing property of Oregon steam navigation company, was read and ordered to be placed on file.

Resolution directing the property of Oregon steam navigation company to be taxed, was read and on motion adopted.

Resolution fixing the salary of J. H. Mitchell, city attorney, was read and passed.

The report of finance committee relative to revenue to be collected, was read and adopted.

Resolution to pay James H. Going the sum of $23 for services as city assessor, passed.

The bills of H. L. Pittock for $83 25 and H. L. Olney for $30, were referred to committee on finance.

Resolution to move the apparatus of Engine Co. No. 3, into the lower story of the council room building, on motion, was laid on the table.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT; DEADY, JUSTICE.—Wm. Edwards vs. Steamship Panama—In Admiralty—Cause, civil and maritime, for pilotage.—The opinion in this cause was announced on Saturday morning. Its length forbids its publication in our columns. The points decided were that,—In a suit between third persons it is to be presumed that when a pilot has a warrant that he has complied with the law, by giving bonds, keeping a boat, &c., and is therefore authorised to take charge of a vessel as pilot,—that the law of Congress of 30th Aug. 1852, commonly called the steamboat law, abrogated the pilot laws of the States as to vessels propelled by steam and carrying passengers; that the law of Congress is paramount, and wherever the State law and it conflict, the State law must yield,—that no pilot is therefore authorized to take charge of such a vessel as pilot unless he is licensed by U. S. Inspectors. Edwards being merely a State pilot, cannot claim pilotage of the Panama. Libel dismissed.—Motion for re-hearing, continued for adjournment, the first Monday of December. Carter, for libellant. Logan, for defendant.

ARRIVAL OF BARK SAMUEL MERRITT.—The Bark Samuel Merritt, Joseph Williams, master, arrived yesterday. She was six days from San Francisco to Columbia river bar, thence four days to this port. Has 300 tons assorted freight, consigned to—[illegible] & Lunn, 60 pkgs.; L. White Bros., 9; Baum Bros. 18; E. J. Northrup & Co., 97; R. Pittock & Co., 182; Failing & Hatt, 175; Weil Bros., 31; S. Waterman, 23; Hass Bros., 34; Rosenfelt & Co., 15; Bonnell Bros., 25; J. R. [illegible] Mayer, 23; G. W. Vaughn, 100; N. Fisher, 34; [illegible] & Co., 353; Ladd, Reed & Co., 286; A. M. & L. [illegible] W order, 50; Thatcher & Rickey, [illegible] 2; S. R. Marsh, 7; E. G. Rogers, 1; H. W. [illegible] 8; J. McCormick, 1; Gen. Humphrey, 7; Strauch [illegible] Warner & Co., 390; B. E. Smith, 62; [illegible] & McCraken, 100; Allen & Lewis, 175; H. W. Corbett, [illegible] Dusenberry, 37; J. Kohn, 301; Smith & Davis, [illegible]; Hodge & Calef, 135; E. M. Burton, 171; Wiberg & [illegible] 34; Walker Bros., 65; J. C. Ainsworth, 1; G. [illegible] Eugene City, 31; Trouchard & Hustler, 12; M. Seller & [illegible] Dunn & Co., 82. Total, 4116 pkgs.

FAST DAY.—The pastors of the several congregations of this city, after consultation, have agreed upon the following order of public exercises for Thursday next: Discourse at 10½ A. M., by Rev. T. H. Pearne. Public prayer meeting at 2½ P. M. Discourse at 7½. All the services at the M. E. Church.—Christian Advocate.

In consequence of the absence of Rev. Mr. Pearne, the sermon will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Chamberlain.

FREIGHTS REDUCED.—We understand that the Ocean steamers have reduced the freight four dollars per ton on iron, nails, salt and groceries between this port and San Francisco.

ARRIVED.—The U. S. Steamer Massachusetts arrived at Fort Vancouver yesterday.

SUNK.—The wharf-boat at Vancouver sunk early on Saturday morning.

We are indebted to Capt Williams of the Bark Sam. Merritt, Purser Wyman, of the Cortes and Mr. Taylor, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, for favors extended to us.

FAIR POSTPONED.—The Executive Committee of the Multnomah County Agricultural Society have postponed the Annual Fair until next season.

The nett receipts of Ladies' Fair last week were $520.

The Oregonian will be distributed on Thursday, but not on Friday morning.

TO DEALERS IN COUNTRY PRODUCE.—We call the attention of country dealers to the advertisement of Blumauer & Rosenblatt, who, we are sure, will do well with them.

STANDARD MILLS FLOUR.—This brand has the reputation of being the best in Oregon. [illegible] keeps it on hand in quantities to suit.

Capt. Mattley writes to the Mountaineer that [illegible] of the miners are making $100 a day on South Fork.

The Mountaineer says that Col. Ruckles' railroad at the Cascades, is in complete order, and that 100 tons of freight can be sent over in a day. It cost about $150,000.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee, of the Multnomah County Agricultural Society, it was deemed advisable to postpone the holding of the Fair advertised for the 23d and 24th proximo, until another season; in consequence of the close proximity of the State Fair which comes off only a short time prior to that date.

Exhibitors and others will please note the change. Per order.

M. S. BURRELL, Sec'y.

☞ The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools in France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has lent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june26dawly

TO OSMOND TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the tenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent. per month, and at the same time made, acknowledged and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three and four in block number three, in Couch's addition to the City of Portland, in the county aforesaid, as security for the payment of said note; and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, to-wit: The sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the twentieth of September, A. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all the diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted.

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases, Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Urinary Diabetes, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, Diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, [illegible] the Back and [illegible] It matters not [illegible] how long standing [illegible] in a shorter time [illegible] the disease has [illegible] During [illegible] years [illegible] the States and the forms I have [illegible] who in the first stage [illegible] had been given up [illegible] permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption [illegible] the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely to be effected [illegible] persons who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death [illegible] the offspring who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself [illegible] ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin [illegible] and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by twenty years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State or Territories by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.
